REQUIRED DOCUMENTATION FOR DIS BADGE VALIDATION

All individuals requiring DIS badge validation must provide 1) initial date of entry into the U.S. in a significant status, not counting short-term or tourist visits, and 2) all documents listed below for the relevant immigration status. Refer to our NIH ID Badges webpage for document submission guidelines.

U.S. Citizens/U.S. Permanent Residents: DIS badge validation is not needed. Send a copy of naturalization certificate or green card to your NIH Administrative Officer (AO). The AO may need to correct the NED record and re-sponsor the NIH ID badge request.

| TPS | Temporary Protected Status (TPS)
Special protection from deportation is available to qualified nationals of designated countries. Extended by U.S. government, generally in one-year periods. | • Valid EAD [(a)(12) or (c)(19)]

Note: Most will have a valid EAD, but there are also special provisions automatically extending the employment authorization for designated countries. To find out if a specific TPS-country has had the work authorization automatically extended, see: http://www.uscis.gov/tps
• If available, provide a receipt notice for an extension with the original EAD
• For an automatic extension period, please provide the original EAD |

Tenants and Volunteers: Simply provide proof of legal non-immigrant status in the U.S. to DIS.

Immigration status not on this chart: Check with employer or DIS for required documentation.
