The Division of Occupational Health and Safety (DOHS) invites you to enter the 2012 "In-Focus! Safe Workplaces for All" photo contest.

Give us your best shots! Be part of the safety culture and show how employees at the NIH work together to create safe and healthy working environments. Photos may also be examples of safe workplaces or workers outside of the NIH.

Your photo might show how working safely helps:

- Prevent injuries and illnesses
- Protect the health of employees
- Set a standard for the community
- Create solutions to safety problems
